

BUILD SKILLS. GAIN EXPERIENCE. GET PAID.

The Cultural Workers Program (CWP) is a youth-centered workforce development initiative serving high school and college students from SeaTac and South King County.

Participants receive professional training, hands-on experience, and paid opportunities in the live event and cultural production industry.

CULTURAL WORKERS PROGRAM (CWP)

Workforce Training in Event & Cultural Production

Scan the QR Code to Register!

GET PAID

THE ROADHOUSE
19955 28th Ave S, SeaTac, WA 98188
at Angle Lake Link Light Rail Station

PROGRAM DATES

April 21 - May 21, 2026

5 Sessions Per Group

Limited to 6 students per group

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Tuesdays
April 21 - May 19
4:00 - 5:30 PM

COLLEGE STUDENTS

Thursdays
April 23 - May 21
4:00 - 5:30 PM

WHAT YOU'LL GAIN

-  Training in event production, stage management, sound and lighting
-  Experience in hospitality and audience engagement
-  Supervised, hands-on work during live events at The Roadhouse
-  Paid opportunities as skills are developed
-  Exposure to career pathways in arts, culture, and event production

All training and work-based learning activities take place at The Roadhouse, providing real-world experience in a professional venue environment.

BUILD SKILLS. GAIN EXPERIENCE. GET PAID.

YOUR FUTURE IS BRIGHT

-  Career Ladder
-  Networking
-  Skill Development

THE ROADHOUSE EXPERIENCE

is a live performance space at Angle Lake Station, serving South King County and the communities along the Federal Way Link Extension (FWLE).

OPEN HOUSE (REQUIRED FOR INTERESTED APPLICANTS)

 THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 2026

THE ROADHOUSE AT ANGLE LAKE STATION